God is Love

Alas the children of Israel are standing and ready to cross over to the Promised Land! God has been raising up a people to be holy for Himself since before the beginning! His great lovingkindness is everywhere in the Torah. It is everywhere in His discipline, in showing us how to live, His guiding us, His hand upon us, His promise to never leave us or forsake us!! We too stand today before the LORD our God as we read this. Both as individuals and as a member of the Body of Messiah. We are given a choice, blessings or the curses, and told to choose Life. It is easy when we know Yeshua is the Life. In the world there will be troubles, but He has overcome the world.

May we pray for those who don't yet know Him to say Yes. He tells us His burden is light. In our parsha it is stated that His word is not too extraordinary nor too far off. There is a resounding joy as we read in the Haftarah of the great celebration and climax of Jewish redemption when "All Israel will be saved!". We taste of that joy in the Feasts and especially the Joy at Succot, which is known in Hebrew as the season of joy, Zeman Simchatenu. As we enter into the Fall Feasts this year, may the joy of the LORD overflow in us and in our loved ones. Our wonderful God and Savior rejoices over us!! He delights in us. Behold all Israel, behold all families of the nations, behold you and I and our families and the schools and communities we are praying for all through the year, Behold Our Salvation comes!!
