

And when, in time to come, your son asks you, saying, ‘What does this mean?’ you shall say to him, ‘It was with a mighty hand that the LORD brought us out from Egypt, the house of bondage.’
Exodus 13:14

God grants a new beginning to the children of Israel from slavery to redemption through the Exodus. In our parsha this week, He marks the beginning of months, establishes the first month of Spring and the Passover offering. All this just before the tenth plague of the first born where the homes of the children of Israel are “Passed over” and marked by the blood of the lamb.

Our new life begins when we are redeemed in the blood of the Lamb, our Messiah Yeshua. He himself the Passover lamb. We are told over and over in the Torah to remember the story of the Exodus and tell it to our children throughout the generations. We tell it as part of the kiddush which is said every Friday night at Shabbat, where we remember the Exodus from Egypt and God’s great love in which He guided us and redeemed us.

May our children be eager to learn and know God, and may our families, loved ones, community, and all of Israel “Come” to Yeshua!
The Ruach and the bride await, saying,
“COME!”

Praise

Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!

Revelation 5:12

To Him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by His blood and made us a kingdom, kohanim to His God and Father — to Him be glory and power forever! Amen!

Revelation 1:5b~6

I also shall make him My first-born, the highest of the kings of the earth.

Psalms 89:28 (27)

His posterity will serve him, telling the next generation about my Lord.

Psalms 22:31

Confession

In Him we have redemption through His blood— the removal of trespasses — in keeping with the richness of His grace.

Ephesians 1:7

Thanksgiving

Know that the LORD, He is God. It is He who has made us, and we are His. We are His people, the sheep of His pasture. Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise! Praise Him, bless His Name.

Psalms 100:3~4

Intercession

But now in Messiah Yeshua,, who was once far off has been brought near by the blood of the Messiah.

Ephesians 2:13

Come to me,, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you,, rest.

Matthew 11:28

I am not asking that you take out of the world, but that You keep from the evil one.

John 17:15

The Lord is not slow in keeping His promise, as some consider slowness. Rather, He is being patient toward you,, not wanting anyone to perish, but for all to come to repentance.

2Peter 3:9

For God so loved the world that He gave His only son so that shall not perish and have eternal life.

John 3:16

Teachers

I am the gate! If anyone comes in through Me, he will be saved. He will come and go and find pasture.

John 10:9

Schools

Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Matthew 6:10

Congregation

Get rid of the old hametz, so you may be a new batch, just as you are unleavened, for Messiah — our Passover Lamb, has been sacrificed.

1Corinthians 5:7

Israel

Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come away: for behold, the winter is past; the rain is over and gone.

Song of Songs 2:10~11

But you, fear not, Jacob My servant, nor be dismayed, O Israel. For behold, I will save you from afar, your offspring from the land of their exile. And Jacob will return and be at peace and secure, no one frightening him.

Jeremiah 46:27

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem— May those who love you be at peace!

Psalms 122:6

Blessing to go

Oh come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker! For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture, the flock of His hand..

Psalms 95:6~7