

“And I appeared”

I will take you to Myself as a people and I will be your God. You will know that I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. Exodus 6:7

The LORD said to Moses, to say to Pharaoh, “Let my people go, so that they may worship Me.”

In this parsha seven of the ten plagues are visited upon Pharaoh when he refused to let the Children of Israel go to worship their God. The plagues were to show Pharaoh and to show the world that the LORD alone is God.

Now we read these words and Thank You, LORD. Here we are, thousands of years after the Exodus. You have set us free so that we may worship You! Our lives are to serve You. Let us lift up our arms and Praise the LORD!
Your love, LORD, is in the heavens, Your faithfulness up to the skies. (Psalm 36:6)

May we always remember to tell of Your wondrous deeds, how You heard our cries and You brought us out of Egypt and delivered us from their bondage. You redeemed us with an outstretched arm and You took us to Yourself as a people. You brought us back to the Land You promised to our forefathers and to give to us as an inheritance. (Exodus 6:6~8) , and are continuing to bring us back in an even greater Exodus! (See Jeremiah 16:14~15!)

In Yeshua, you set us free from bondage to sin and death. You are bringing us back to You. Forever You are our God.

Praise

I love ADONAI, for He hears my voice, my cries.

Psalm 116:1

O ADONAI! Surely I am Your servant. I am Your servant, the son of Your maidservant. You have freed me from my bonds.

Psalm 116:16

For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword—piercing right through to a separation of soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

Hebrews 4:12

Then I heard the altar saying, “Yes, ADONAI Elohai-Tzva’ot, true and righteous are Your judgements!”

Revelation 16:7

Confession

By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and set our heart at rest before Him whenever our heart condemns us. For God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.

1John 3:19~20

Thanksgiving

But thanks be to God! Who keeps giving us the victory through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah!

1Corinthians 15:57
